

MIRANDELA INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX

PRELIMINARY STUDY; DETAILED DESIGN – FOUNDATIONS AND STRUCTURAL ENGINEERING; TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO THE CONSTRUCTION

Client: BPN Imofundos / Gráfica Mirandela, S.A.

Location: Santo Antão do tojal – Loures, Portugal

Design date: 2005 - 2005

Construction date: 2005 - 2005

Design by: Daniel Sousa (developed at Viaponte, S.A.)

Services: Preliminary Study; Detailed Design – Foundations and Structural Engineering;
Technical Assistance to the Construction

Construction: LENA Construções, S.A.

Summary:

Building for the new facilities of the Graphics and Printing company Mirandela, making use of a steel solution in the industrial and storage areas, and reinforced concrete (cast 'in situ' and precast) in complementary activities building areas in structural foundations and heavy equipment's fixations.

This industrial, storage and administrative building has a gross deployment area of 17,370 m² and was at the date the largest printing facility in Portugal.

SEE ONLINE